- ① You cannot apply for Japan Post Bank Debit in any of the following cases.
 - 1. If you are a "non-resident" under the Income Tax Act or the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act.
 - 2. If your period of stay expires within one year from the date of your application for Japan Post Bank Debit.
 - 3. If you already have a JP BANK CARD (Credit card with cash card function)
 - 4. If you already have a Japan Post Bank Debit.
 - 5. If you are under 15 years old or junior high school student.
 - 6. If your account is one of the following accounts.
 - Corporate account
 - Business account
 - Transfer account
 - Ordinary Savings account
 - Integrated account without cash service
 - 7. If your membership has been revoked in the past based on the "Japan Post Bank Debit Membership Regulations".
- ② If you are using an IC cash card with Suica or Edy functions, You will not be able to use Suica or Edy functions after applying Japan Post Bank Debit.
- ③ It takes about two weeks from application to issuance.
- 4 Telephone authentication is performed for the phone number registered in the Japan Post Bank general account.

- (5) If you read the QR code on the flyer, you may not be able to apply until the end. In that case, please apply from the Japan Post Bank website.
- 6 If you switch from an IC cash card to a Japan Post Bank debit, your IC cash card will become unusable at the earliest of the following times.
 - (1) When using Japan Post Debit at an ATM for the first time.
 - (2) When a certain period of time has passed since the Japan Post Bank Debit was issued
- If you recently changed your name on a IC cash card, After receiving the IC cash card with your new name printed on it, apply for Japan Post Bank Debit.
- B Due to system maintenance, you will not be able to apply for Japan Post Bank Debit during the following hours. Second Saturday of odd-numbered months from 9:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m. the next day.
- You cannot apply for Japan Post Debit if you have lost your cash card.